MILTON NASCIMENTO "ONE FINAL SESSION" Milton Nascimento bids farewell to the big stage with the tour entitled "One final music session" in what promises to be a moving moment and in which the magical cycle of one of the Brazilian music greats is brought to a close in majestic fashion. A celebration of the memories of all those inspirational years that had a profound impact on both Brazilian and World Music alike. It may seem like a journey is coming to an end, but it is better interpreted as a beautiful coming together in the meeting of Milton and his fans.

MARISA MONTE
Multi-award-winning Marisa Monte is credited with bringing samba right up to the present day by melding jazz, blues and funk rhythms into old-school samba rhythms. One of Brazil's biggest artists, with ten million+ album sales to date, bridging the gap between styles and musical generations and continuing to surprise the public

The National Youth Jazz Exchange NYJX is a distinctive, new ensemble that brings together early-career artists from across the UK. Mentored by Orphy Robinson MBE, this unconventional collective of prodigious talent delivers a unique body of original material, developed during - and influenced by - the nationwide pandemic lockdowns. Expect an elaborate sonic patchwork of strings, reeds, drums, and washes of modular synthesis. Rick Simpson is a regular performer at Ronnie Scotts, the 606 Jazz Club, Pizza Express Dean Street, The Vortex, The Bull's Head, and he has appeared at larger UK venues such as the Royal Festival Hall and the Purcell Room.
